Thanks so much for your interest! The Yale LET(s) Lead Transformational Leadership Academy aim to help people channel their lived experience into transformational leadership, which is about creating a culture of change through inspiration, motivation, and hard work. The program involves 11 weeks of mandatory virtual learning sessions that take place on Thursdays from 1pm-3pm EST in addition to a 5-6 month independent project and mentorship component.

To apply for the program, we invite you to answer the following questions.

1. Why are you interested in developing your leadership skills? How have your goals for transformative leadership been inspired by your personal experience of recovery?
(Please limit your answer to 250 words)

2. Diversity, equity and inclusion are fundamental aspects of the program. Please tell us about your cultural background and lived experience(s). How might your identity(ies) and lived experience(s) inform your perspective and/or approach to leadership? (Please limit your answer to 500 words)

3. Participation in this program involves leading an independent project and working with a mentor over 5-6 months. If you are chosen for this program, what project idea(s) would you propose? (Please limit your answer to 250 words)
