

SHAPING the FUTURE of VIRTUAL MENTAL HEALTH CARE for 2021 and BEYOND

This five-part leadership discussion series is open to health care leaders seeking to implement, scale and sustain virtual mental health care services in their organizations.

Each session provides a collaborative exchange of ideas among national and international thought leaders in virtual mental health care. Insights will inform our work as we develop an advocacy roadmap for virtual mental health care in 2021 and beyond.

JOIN THE DISCUSSION

Online registration for each event is required.

Register here <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DMH2021> and receive email updates for each session.

1. LEADERSHIP LESSONS:

Mobilizing virtual mental health care during a pandemic

Tues., Jan. 26, 2021 | 1:00 p.m.-2:30 p.m.

2. A CALL TO ACTION:

Widening digital participation in digital health and virtual mental health care

Tues., Feb. 16, 2021 | 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

3. Why do we need national standards for virtual mental health?

Mon., Feb. 22, 2021 | 3:30 p.m.-5:00 p.m.

4. Technology, privacy and compassion in virtual mental health

Wed., Mar. 10, 2021 | 1:30 p.m.-3:00 p.m.

5. A CALL TO ACTION:

Developing a virtual mental health care workforce and education agenda for 2021 and beyond

Tues., Mar. 23, 2021 | 11:30 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

SHAPING the FUTURE of VIRTUAL MENTAL HEALTH CARE for 2021 and BEYOND

VIRTUAL MENTAL HEALTH CARE LEADERSHIP DISCUSSION SERIES

PARTICIPATING ORGANIZATIONS

Leaders from the following organizations will join our discussion:

Canada

- Addiction Services for York Region (ASYR)
- Canada Health Infoway
- Health Standards Organization (HSO) and Accreditation Canada (AC)
- Lawson Health Research Institute
- Ontario Health
- Ontario Association of Mental Health Professionals (OAMHP)
- Patient Advisors Network (PAN)
- Royal Ottawa Mental Health Centre
- St. Joseph's Healthcare Hamilton

International

- Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Health Care
- Citizens Online, United Kingdom
- eMental Health International Collaborative (eMHIC), New Zealand
- Good Things Foundation, United Kingdom
- Health Education England (HEE), National Health Service (NHS), United Kingdom

AUDIENCE

Health care/service leaders and decision-makers, including:

- administrators
- advanced practice clinical leaders
- ethics and privacy advocates
- digital program managers and digital champions
- leaders of academic institutions and educators
- policy-makers
- program managers
- project managers.

JOIN THE DISCUSSION

Online registration for each event is required.

Register here <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/DMH2021> and receive email updates for each session.

Please note: The list of participating organizations remains subject to change. We will update this flyer as necessary.